

BANK OF CANADA
BANQUE DU CANADA

At the Bank of Canada, we contribute to the economic and financial well-being of Canadians. Join an innovative workforce that will challenge, energize and motivate you to be your very best.

Working at the Bank

We are a leading central bank - dynamic, engaged, and trusted - committed to a better Canada. We offer a vibrant workplace that benefits from the perspectives and talents of our diverse and inclusive workforce. We rely on a team of collaborative professionals and invest in innovative research and policy analysis. We also offer flexibility to accommodate the needs of our employees and focus on creating a superior work environment that promotes diversity, inclusiveness and equal opportunities for all.

Diversity and inclusion

We promote the principles of diversity and inclusion and adhere to the Canadian Human Rights Act and other legislation. Reflected in our priorities, we are committed to having a diverse and representative workforce in which every employee can reach their full potential. We strive to make our policies, programs and workplace more inclusive, respectful and barrier-free. Our partnerships and memberships are only a few ways we support diversity and inclusion:

- Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion
- EARN
- Indspire
- Indigenous Link
- Equitek
- Pride at Work

We encourage applications from women, Indigenous Peoples, veterans, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities and persons of all races, ethnic origins, religions, abilities, sexual orientations, and gender identities and expressions.

The work we do

Economists and financial sector specialists. We offer you the unique opportunity to work at the very centre of Canada's economy, in an organization with significant impact on the economic and financial well-being of Canadians

Information technology. We're on the lookout for motivated, creative employees to help us shape the future in a rapidly changing IT landscape.

Cyber security. Our cyber team protects the Bank of Canada's reputation and ensures the integrity and stability of the Canadian economy.

Administration and operations. Our teams provide the advice, guidance, project management and support needed for wise decision-making and stewardship of the Bank's people and resources.
