At Corus, we have a passionate drive to connect with the world around us: to express, to share, to be part of people's lives. Walk around our offices, our stations, our studios across the country and you'll feel it. You'll see it in action.

You'll see it in the open communication and the approachability of our people. You'll see it in our care for quality work and the interest in new, creative solutions. You'll see it in how we work with external partners, and how we care about our communities. These are all core to the values we commit to living each and every day - Win Together, Think Beyond, Make It Happen, Learn Every Day, Show We Care. Our values describe what makes us unique –and a great place to work.

At Corus we value and actively involve the full range of what makes people unique in order to create a strong and innovative company where amazing people thrive. A company where people have the full opportunity to show their unique value and develop their potential.

We strongly encourage applications from Indigenous peoples, Black communities, racialized persons, persons with disabilities and the 2SLGBTQ+ community.

Diversity and Inclusion Vision

Our vision at Corus is to be:

- a group of people that is as diverse as the communities in which we work, and the audiences we serve
- a place where people have full opportunity to show their unique value and develop their potential
- a culture where we stand up for each other, and actively work to challenge our biases and assumptions

A New Path for Diversity and Inclusion at Corus

Around the world, workplaces, organizations and individuals have been seeking new conversations about racial injustice and in particular anti-Black racism.

At Corus, we think it's important to acknowledge that systemic racism exists within our society and workplaces. We are committed to taking the necessary actions seeking to rid our organization of systemic barriers as we strive to create a fully inclusive culture – one in which equity and diversity can thrive.
