

Corus is a driving force in the media industry with a diverse portfolio of strong brands that entertain and inform audiences through great storytelling and compelling content, reaching millions of people around the world every day.

Work with US

Great careers begin here.

As Canada's leading pure-play media and content powerhouse, you'll recognize our brands across a multitude of platforms and formats across Canada and around the globe including TV, radio, news, animation, software, studio, publishing, social and digital.

We connect people and communities through entertainment and information.

Corus people are creative storytellers – we share openly and value support and connection between our people, our audiences, our partners and our communities.

Our industry is fast changing, so our culture is one where we actively look beyond what we've done in the past to design innovative solutions for the future. We try new things, learn and try again.

Our people and culture bring ideas to life that will drive our long-term success.

If you are passionate about making a positive difference, you thrive on imagining what's possible, and you want to master your craft, we'd love to hear from you.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Around the world, workplaces, organizations and individuals have been seeking new conversations about racial injustice and in particular anti-Black racism.

At Corus, we think it's important to acknowledge that systemic racism exists within our society and workplaces. We are committed to taking the necessary actions seeking to rid our organization of systemic barriers as we strive to create a fully inclusive culture – one in which equity and diversity can thrive.
