

Great careers start at Investors Group

We believe that our success depends on our greatest resource – the diversity and strength of our people.

Whether as a financial advisor or an employee on our corporate team, Investors Group is committed to creating an environment that allows you to succeed and achieve your highest potential.

Become an Investors Group advisor

An Investors Group advisor is someone who puts a client's best interest first, and who has the education and experience needed to help them achieve their financial goals.

Grow your career in an environment where you're in control. As an entrepreneur, your skills and experience are valued, you have access to specialized support, and you have the time and commitment to dedicate to clients – enabling you to thrive.

Join our corporate team

There are a variety of opportunities to explore with our corporate team.

Each position enables you to grow your career with a leading organization that encourages teamwork, personal growth, and the achievement of excellence – providing you with the opportunity to thrive professionally, and personally.
