

FCA, the seventh-largest automaker in the world based on total annual vehicle sales, is an international automotive group.

At FCA Canada Inc., we are committed to attracting and retaining leaders at every level of our organization. We search for people who exemplify the entrepreneurial spirit, act with integrity and are accountable for delivering what they promise. We give them the freedom to think for themselves, the encouragement to share their ideas and the rewards that make it worth their while. If you're ready to drive your own success, see what makes FCA Canada Inc. a place where leaders thrive.

Diversity & Inclusion

The Company's commitment to diversity and leadership on diversity related issues is woven into our entire business, including our work force, supply base, marketing efforts, dealer network, and our communities.

This commitment is a longstanding and ingrained part of our culture. Encouraging diversity throughout our extended enterprise is not only the right thing to do, but it breeds innovation, mutual respect and openness, and is vital to our sustainability as a company.

At FCA, we believe it is our diversity of talents and perspectives that allow us to take visionary approaches strategically apply new technologies and forge ahead in our industry in innovation and performance.

Our team actively recruits a diverse workforce. We seek out top talent at colleges and universities and we work closely with professional diversity organizations to identify high-potential diverse candidates. We also offer many opportunities to meet with our team at diversity events across the country.

It takes a team of driven and results-oriented professionals in a wide variety of roles to keep a dynamic company like FCA ahead of the market.

We compete in one of the most demanding and fast-paced industries. That's why we'll look to you to take initiative, to offer up new ideas and perspectives, and to lead people and lead change. It's what we expect from every member of our team, in every role, whether you're tasked with providing reliable IT systems for managing information...ensuring the quality of the materials and services we purchase...or designing and engineering the very products we sell. Every role in our workplace represents a new opportunity to make us stronger and more competitive.

Explore our opportunities and see what makes FCA one exciting place to work.