

About Queen's University

Queen's University is a community with 175 years of tradition, a reputation of academic excellence, quality research and a beautiful waterfront campus with both historical limestone buildings and state of the art modern facilities. But more than anything, Queen's is its people.

We are researchers, scholars, artists, professors, students and staff with an ambitious spirit who want to develop ideas that can make a difference in the world. People who imagine together what the future can be and who work together to realize that future.

About Kingston

Situated on the traditional territories of the Haudenosaunee and the Anishinabek, Kingston is approximately a two hour drive from Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, where the St. Lawrence River meets Lake Ontario and the Rideau Canal. Kingston is a stunning, historic city that consistently ranks as one of the best places to live in Canada.

Kingston's 120,000 community-minded citizens enjoy an outstanding quality-of-life enhanced by superb intellectual, recreational and creative opportunities, and supported by excellent health care facilities and municipal services, programs and facilities.

Working at Queen's University

At Queen's University the employment experience is as diverse as it is interesting. We have opportunities in multiple areas of globally recognized research, faculty administration, engineering & construction, athletics & recreation, power generation, corporate shared services, and many more.

Our environment mirrors the educational experience that we offer our students, in that it is collaborative, inclusive, and accessible. Employees are encouraged to get involved in a wide variety of interesting projects and initiatives that are both challenging and rewarding. We are a community that works together to create an environment where everyone has a full and enriching Queen's experience.

Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from individuals from equity seeking groups such as women, racialized/visible minorities, Indigenous/Aboriginal peoples, persons with a disability, persons who identify in the LGBTQ+ community and others who reflect the diversity of Canadian society.
