

The Toronto Transit Commission (TTC) is North America's third largest transit system and has been recognized as one of the top places to work in the GTA. Guided by a forward-thinking strategic plan, the TTC's vision is to be a transit system that makes Toronto proud. The TTC's recruitment efforts are directly aligned to its mission of providing "a reliable, efficient, and integrated bus, streetcar, and subway system that draws its high standards of customer care from our rich traditions of safety, service, and courtesy."

Why work with us?

The Toronto Transit Commission (TTC) is North America's third largest transit system and has been recognized a top employer in the GTA and Canada. Guided by a forward-thinking strategic plan, the TTC's vision is to be a transit system that makes Toronto proud.

We offer leading benefits plans, in-house training and tuition subsidies. We also run a number of wellness campaigns and have an extensive rewards and recognition program.

We are recognized as a leading employer for young people because we offer in-house and online training, career planning services, mentoring, leadership training and apprenticeship/skilled trades programs.

We are also recognized as a leading employer due to our extensive diversity an inclusion programs, services and formal committees, policies and frameworks.

The TTC offers a wide range of challenging career opportunities. We are committed to fostering a positive workplace culture with a workforce that is representative of the communities we serve. We're committed to the principles of diversity and inclusion and encourage all qualified candidates to apply.

- Transit Operator
- Fare Inspector
- Special Constable
- Seasonal Maintenance
- Summer Student Program

