

Humber is a great place to work.

Great people are the heart and soul of any great organization. Humber is committed to ensuring we have the best faculty, support staff and administrators who will ensure we achieve our vision of “excellence in polytechnic education”. Humber has received several awards including: Top Employer for New Canadians; Top Employer for Young People; and Greater Toronto Top Employer several years in a row. These awards demonstrate Humber’s commitment to providing a working environment that makes it an employer of choice.

Why Humber

We invest in the success of all our employees with comprehensive professional development programs through our Centre for Teaching and Learning and Learning and Organizational Development team. For employees who wish to further their education we offer a tuition reimbursement program for programs taken outside Humber and a discounted rate ($20.00) for many of the courses offered through Humber’s Continuing Education department. We provide a comprehensive vacation and benefits package for our employees and a defined benefit retirement plan.

In addition, we have free onsite fitness facilities offering fitness equipment and instructor-led classes; onsite dining facilities; an employee lounge; walking trails; many social activities throughout the year, and an awards and recognition program.

We have built a culture of workplace safety and well-being, where safety is respected and encouraged where health and safety best practices are incorporated into all Humber activities.

Humber’s Centre for Human Rights, Equity and Diversity is committed to ensuring an environment free from discrimination and harassment, protecting human rights and enabling the human spirit.

When you choose a career at Humber we will support you to ensure your expertise and skills are recognized and that you have the resources to support Humber’s vision and mission.

Humber College is committed to principles of equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace. Employment Equity is a program legislated by the Federal Employment Equity Act (1995) to remove barriers to employment for Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, visible minorities and women. Humber includes sexual orientation as part of its overall equity program, including Employment Equity.

