

People are at the heart of the Humber experience. Here, every day we work shoulder to shoulder to deliver excellence, and in so doing we redefine what it means to be a leader in polytechnic education.

Humber employees are committed, caring and fun-loving. We learn and grow together. We strive to find and nurture extraordinary employees who bring their best each day.

Why Humber

Humber is a place like no other. Here you will “Find Your Spot” and build a career and future that grows as we grow. In this rich diverse workplace we encourage diverse ideas and support you to find deep meaning and purpose so that you can be proud of what you do and where you work.

Great careers start with interesting and diverse experiences. At Humber our career paths open up a world of infinite possibilities for you to explore.

Humber takes finding and growing the right talent very seriously. We strive to build an organization that is as diverse, talented and unique as our student body. We bring heart to our HR practices and engage our employees and their representative bodies with respect and openness.

Humber College is committed to principles of equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

Employment Equity is a program legislated by the Federal Employment Equity Act (1995) to remove barriers to full participation in employment for four designated groups: Women, Aboriginal People/Indigenous People, Persons with Disabilities, and Racialized People/Visible Minorities. Humber includes Sexual and Gender Diversity as part of its overall equity program, including Employment Equity.

We strive to find and nurture extraordinary employees who bring their best each day.

If you are interested in working in higher education and are looking to contribute to the largest polytechnic College in Ontario, as we shape the future of our students and communities, here is your opportunity to join our team.
