Wood is a global leader in the delivery of project, engineering and technical services to energy and industrial markets. We operate in more than 60 countries, employing around 55,000 people, with revenues of over $10 billion.

Challenge the norm

Are you ready to think about things differently and to challenge the norm? We are too.

Whether you are interested in exploring a technical, commercial or creative career, whichever location you work in, you will experience an environment like no other – with a number of career opportunities focused on delivering the best technical solutions to a diverse global customer base.

What's it like to work for us?

You'll be challenged. You'll be encouraged to excel. You'll be given the opportunity to build a rewarding career. And you'll feel proud to be part of the team. You will be a part of a strong, global company shaping the future of the world's oil & gas, chemicals, environment & infrastructure, power & process, nuclear and mining markets. We operate in some of the most challenging and exciting locations in the world and work on some of the most advanced and complicated projects ever conceived.

We pride ourselves on our ability to offer competitive compensation and benefits, with opportunities to develop your own career and work on a varied portfolio of projects.

You will be assigned a base location but embracing flexibility is key. A world of possibilities is available to you, with operations in over 60 countries worldwide. We ask that you be prepared to explore our global locations as opportunities emerge and collaborate with colleagues across our global network. The nature of our work means that you may be asked to visit client sites, offices, travel abroad and even relocate to a new location.

Inclusive work environment

Fairness, support in development and a safe work environment – these are all of great importance to us. Where people look out for each other, are respected and are recognised. Where people work ethically and safely.

Wood is committed to achieving a more diverse workforce and inclusive working environment, where all of our people have a sense of belonging and where diversity of thought is both encouraged and enabled throughout our business. This is reflected through the emphasis we have given diversity and inclusion in both our company values and expected behaviours.

We are passionate about building a culture of inclusion and respect where the value of difference is not only recognised, but positively encouraged.

We are an equal opportunity employer that recognises the value of a diverse workforce. We truly believe that diversity within our workplace promotes an incredible diversity of ideas.

So, are you ready? Let's shape our future – together.
