

We're committed to creating an environment where all team members feel welcome and have opportunities to grow, develop and thrive.

The real strength of Grainger Canada is our people. We believe our differences make us stronger. Diversity, equity and inclusion are integral to our success, and we are committed to fostering an inclusive environment where all team members feel safe, valued and comfortable bringing their whole self to work each day. We are proud to partner with Equitek to reinforce our commitment to respecting each other, embracing our differences and standing up for what is right.

We know that building a better workplace requires everyone's participation, which is why we strive to create a work environment powered by human differences. In addition to offering a space where diverse groups and individuals can leverage their full potential, we also offer strong leadership support, competitive compensation packages and health benefits, attractive pension plans and learning and development opportunities.

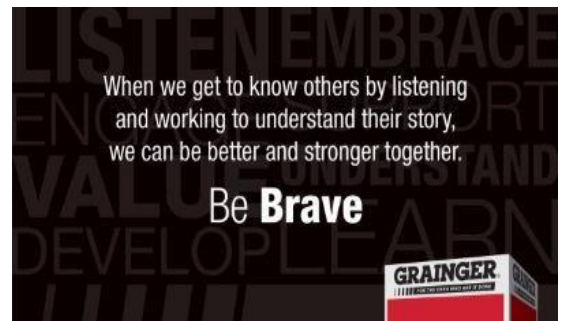

What we do

We are Canada's trusted provider of industrial products and solutions. For over 130 years, we have been enhancing our solutions and services to keep people safe and their operations run smoothly. This process is driven by our desire to continuously provide reliable, best-in-class safety, facility maintenance, and industrial supplies so our clients feel supported and focus on what matters to them.

Solutions for all businesses from a Massive Inventory, Effortless ecommerce experience, KeepStock Inventory Management & our Local branches across Canada.

The following principles are at the heart of how we work—with one another, our customers, suppliers, and communities.

- Start with the customer
- Embrace curiosity
- Act with intent
- Compete with urgency
- Win as one team
- Invest in our success
- Do the right thing

Grainger Canada is committed to employment equity and we invite all qualified candidates, including women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, and Aboriginal Peoples to apply to our career opportunities.
