

CANOPY GROWTH, DEDICATED TO UNLEASHING THE POWER OF CANNABIS TO IMPROVE LIVES.

Our mission is an expression of what we value, and what we're building towards. At Canopy, we are channeling the power of this extraordinary plant – to build an organization made with intention and defined by purpose, serving as a new model for a transformational industry.

With an approach grounded in our responsibility – to use cannabis to build a better world, to inspire our team members, and to advance social justice – we are focused on achieving our ambitious goals.

As Canada's largest licensed producer, Canopy Growth Corporation employs over 2000 people across a growing collection of brands, regions and job types. From old-school cannabis growers and medical detailers, to plant biologists and sales executives, we have opportunities for prospects of all skill sets, and our plants and offices span the country.

At Canopy Growth, our mission is clear: improve lives, end cannabis prohibition, and strengthen communities. We believe that cannabis can be a force for good. We're building a consumer-centric organization that is focused on sharing the transformational potential of cannabis with the world. We will achieve this through an innovative and disruptive portfolio of cannabis and hemp-derived products.

With millions of square feet of licensed production capacity and operations spanning four continents, Canopy Growth is the world's leading cannabis and hemp company. We recognize that employees are at the core of our success, and we take pride in a corporate culture that emphasizes inclusiveness, collaboration, and diversity.

Our employees come from a wide range of backgrounds, each bringing their own unique skills and talents to the table, working together to continue our incredible momentum of growth. If you are interested in building global challenger brands, scaling a business, and working in a values-driven environment, we want to hear from you!
