

Waterloo Regional Police Service

At the Waterloo Regional Police Service (WRPS), we believe strongly in community policing and are committed to making a difference in the many diverse and vibrant neighbourhoods of Waterloo Region. We are the seventh largest police service in the province of Ontario and serve the municipalities of Kitchener, Waterloo and Cambridge, as well as the Townships of Wellesley, Wilmot, Woolwich and North Dumfries.

With more than 1,000 uniform and civilian members, the Waterloo Regional Police Service proudly serves a population of more than 630,000 residents in one of the fastest growing areas of Ontario. We are committed to a leadership role in crime prevention and law enforcement in a community partnership to improve safety and the quality of life for all people. Police officer and professional civilian positions offer a wide variety of career opportunities along with competitive salaries and benefit packages.

Police Officer

The Waterloo Regional Police Service is actively recruiting for police Constables. If you're looking for a career where you can make a difference in your community, it's time to Make It Yours.

We value diversity and support inclusion as an Equal Opportunity Employer. WRPS is dedicated to developing and promoting professionally skilled employees who reflect the community we serve.

Professional Civilian Positions

The Waterloo Regional Police Service offers a wide range of jobs in several different areas, including:

- Communications
- Records
- Court Services
- Executive Office
- Legal Services
- Finance
- Human Resources
- Intelligence
- Neighbourhood Policing
- Administration
- Strategic Services
- Community Support
- Information Technology

Apply now and
Make It Yours.

