

Canadian Institute
for Health Information

Institut canadien
d'information sur la santé

Better data. Better decisions.
Healthier Canadians

We are an independent, not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing comparable and actionable data and information that are used to accelerate improvements in health care, health system performance and population health across Canada.

We work closely with federal, provincial and territorial partners and stakeholders across Canada to collect, package and distribute data and information on topics like mental health, substance use, health spending and COVID-19. This information helps inform health policy, management, care and research across the country.

For more than 25 years, CIHI has set the pace on data privacy, security, accessibility and innovation to improve Canada's health systems.

At CIHI, we are committed to fostering an inclusive, barrier-free and accessible environment.

Why should I work for CIHI?

- We offer meaningful work in the health sector. You can feel good about the work that you do and know that it makes a difference. Use your skills to support our work on COVID-19, mental health and more.
- We put our people first. We are proud to support our employees at work and in life, with a strong defined-benefit pension plan, work-life balance, professional development and more.
- We are an inclusive and accessible workplace. We are committed to building a diverse workforce where all employees can reach their full potential.
- We care about our partners and stakeholders. We are currently advancing our IT capabilities to improve our users' experience and have adopted cloud technologies.

What does CIHI offer employees?

- Competitive salary and benefits, including a defined benefit pension plan that provides a predictable, secure monthly income for life after retirement.
