

Brookfield Properties

At Brookfield Properties, our success starts with our people. People like you.

We develop, operate, and manage more than 800 properties and 390 million square feet of high-quality, sustainability-focused real estate around the globe. It's a feat that wouldn't be possible without our team, a diverse group of creative visionaries and innovative experts who are relentless in pursuit of one goal: to ensure our buildings don't simply meet the needs of our tenants, residents, and communities — but exceed them, every day.

We've reimagined how culture can drive success in real estate. Promoting a workplace built around trust and transparency. Where doing the right thing and doing the smart thing are one and the same.

Strength through diversity

Diversity is one of the essential building blocks of our business. Why? Because we know the best solutions are born from bringing together people of different backgrounds, perspectives, and experiences.

A culture of commitment

We are more when we're together. That's why we've created a welcoming environment for our team. Emphasized diversity and inclusivity. And provided our employees with the tools they need to grow their careers. Because we're not just a business that others want to work with — we're a business that people want to work for.

Limitless opportunity

We believe that performance should be synonymous with advancement. That's why, at Brookfield Properties, we reward top-tier work by promoting from within.
